Huntsman and Clariant Announce Intention to Combine in Merger of Equals, Creating a Leading Global Specialty Chemical Company

Dear valued supplier,

Huntsman and Clariant recently announced our intention to combine in a merger of equals to create a leading global specialty chemicals company, to be named HuntsmanClariant, with an enterprise value of approximately $20 billion. The deal is expected to close by the end of this year, subject to Huntsman and Clariant shareholder approvals, regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions.

Huntsman's and Clariant's business segments are complementary and, combined, will offer more streamlined access to an expanded portfolio of products and applications. HuntsmanClariant will provide enhanced customer focus with a combined commitment to innovation and a collaborative approach to R&D and new product development.

We are very excited about this proposed merger. We are confident the combination will improve our value as your customer and provide you with multiple benefits, including a strengthened balance sheet, improved credit rating and greater supply opportunities with one of the strongest stable specialty chemical companies in the world.

Please note that we expect the previously announced IPO of Huntsman's Pigments and Additives business, Venator, will continue as planned in summer 2017.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely,
